

ALEXANDRIA.

FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21.

best President the country ever had. But the Senator has three sons and three other near relatives in the federal service.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Correspondence of the ALEX. GAZETTE.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21, 1887.

Long before half past ten o'clock this morning, which was the hour set for the hearing of an application for a writ of error in the Chicago anarchists' cases, the conference room of the U. S. Supreme Court, in the basement of the Capitol, was uncomfortably crowded with lawyers and newspaper men who were waiting to hear the proceedings. J. H. Tucker, Gen. Pryor, Gen. B. F. Butler, Captain Black and Mr. Solomon, the counsel for the condemned prisoners, were present, and in the Justice Hall, nor the record in the cases had arrived. Five minutes later, however, two men came in carrying with difficulty a large blue tin covered trunk, corded with half inch rope, and under the weight of which the bearers visibly staggered. At twenty minutes to eleven Mr. Justice Harlan entered the conference room, and after greeting the counsel and directing that all of the newspaper men be allowed to come in and take such places as best suited their convenience, he seated himself at his desk and called for attention. As soon as the room had become quiet, Justice Harlan, without waiting for any formal motion or application from the prisoners' counsel, said with slow deliberation: "This is an application for a writ of error to bring up for review by the Supreme Court of the U. S. a judgment of the Supreme Court of the State of Illinois involving the liberty of one of the petitioners and the lives of the others. The time fixed for executing the sentence of death is I am informed the 11th day of November. Under the circumstances it is my duty to facilitate an early decision of any question in the case of which the Supreme Court of the U. S. may properly take cognizance. If I should allow a writ of error it is quite certain that counsel would have to repeat before that court the argument which they propose now to make before me. On the other hand if I should refuse the writ the defendants would be at liberty to renew their application before any other justice of the Supreme Court, and as human life and liberty are involved, that justice might feel obliged, notwithstanding a previous refusal of the writ, to look into the case and determine for himself whether a writ of error should be allowed. If he also refused, the defendants could take the papers to some other member of the court; and so on until each justice had been applied to or until some justice granted the writ. In this way it is manifest that delays might occur that would be very embarrassing in view of the short time intervening between this day and the date fixed for carrying into effect the judgment of the State court. As the case is one of a very serious character in whatever aspect it may be regarded, I deem it proper to make an order, which I now do, that counsel present this application to the court in open session to the end that early and final action may be had upon the question whether that court has jurisdiction to review the judgment in this case. There is no reason why it may not be presented to the court at its session to day. Counsel may state that the application is made to the court pursuant to my direction." At twelve o'clock, when the U. S. Supreme Court met, the counsel for the anarchists having in the meantime held another conference, appeared before that court, and General Roger A. Pryor made the motion for a writ of error in the case referred to, basing his argument upon the grounds that the statutes of Illinois relating to the apprehension of juries make it possible to try the prisoners with a partial and prejudiced jury, as was, in fact, done in this case, and that such a statute is in violation of the federal constitution; that the prisoners were compelled to testify against themselves and to criminate evidence against them was obtained by the police from their private desks without search warrants in violation of the Constitutional provision that a man shall not be deprived of life, etc., without due process of law. At the conclusion of his remarks, Chief Justice Waite ordered that those portions of record raising the points presented be printed this afternoon, and said the court would announce its decision next Monday.

Representative Wilson, of West Virginia, is here to day. He will go to Middlesex county, Virginia, next week, and while there will make a speech at Saluda, probably on Wednesday, in favor of the election of the democratic candidate for the legislature there. He says his ex colleague, Mr. Easton Gibson, is hard at work in the Ohio campaign, in which he bears Governor Gordon, of Georgia, is also to take part.

In the U. S. Supreme Court to-day Mr. S. W. Packard, a prominent member of the Chicago bar, as counsel for the prohibitionists, moved that the Iowa cases be advanced so that they could be argued before a decision in similar cases from Kansas be rendered. These cases are before the court on appeal by the liquor men, who contend that their business and property cannot be destroyed without compensation.

The funeral services of Rustum Edindi, the late Secretary of the Turkish legation, at Oak Hill yesterday, were conducted by an Episcopal clergyman, as the deceased was a member of the Greek Church, the tenets of the two churches permitting a certain degree of fraternization.

No public arrangements have been made for the reception of the Presidential party, who are expected to arrive here about seven o'clock to-morrow morning.

Letters received here to-day from Ohio state that representative Grant of Texas, the distinguished anti-slavery abolitionist, has entered the democratic campaign there and is making the most effective speeches heard there in many a year. These letters corroborate what has been said in this correspondence before, that the republicans of Ohio are scared. Representative McKinley, republican of that State, writes that both parties will do their level best, and that a big vote will be polled. He says the republicans will win by a small majority unless the democrats succeed in their attempt to make the farmers believe that a low tariff will redound to their interest.

A gentleman interested in the Alexandria and Washington Railroad, here to day, says the recent sale of that road to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court, the docket of which is so crowded that the case can not be reached in less than three years.

The committee appointed by the Virginia democratic association of this city for the purpose, will wait upon the civil service commission to day and ask that body collectively if it endorses the recent order of its chief, Mr. Oberley, prohibiting federal office holders from joining political associations, and will report the answer they receive to the meeting of their association to-morrow.

Representative O'Ferrall, of Virginia, is here to-day. He has been campaigning extensively in different portions of his State. He says the democrats there are aware of the importance of the contest in which they are now engaged, and that they will elect a majority of the legislature. He speaks confidently, and is assured of the truth of what he says.

The trouble between Secretary Bayard and A-torney General Garland relating to the seizure of Canadian sealers exists among certain newspapers, and not between the officials named.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Count of Paris intends to visit Dorrecht to receive and confer with royalist deputations from the north and east of France.

The will of Charles Dickens solemnly prohibited the erection of a memorial to his memory, such as is now proposed in London. He desired no other memorial than his published works.

The board of managers of the New York Produce Exchange suspended about 125 members yesterday for non-payment of their annual dues in addition to the larger number that failed to pay the gratuity fund assessments.

The Georgia Legislature adjourned last night after a four months' session. Of all the public measures discussed none were finally adopted. The Legislature new to be elected will have the election of a United States Senator to succeed Colquitt.

An application was made before Judge O'Brien, of the Court of Queen's Bench, in Dublin, yesterday for a writ of certiorari to quash the verdict of a jury rendered by the coroner's jury against the policeman who did the shooting at Mitchellstown. The application being unopposed by the attorney general, was granted.

The Minneapolis Tribune yesterday acknowledged the error it committed in publishing any matter uncomplimentary to Mrs. Cleveland during her visit to that city. Will E. Haskell, jr., member of the Tribune Company, will assume over his own signature the responsibility for the Cleveland editorial and entirely exonerate Mr. Blethen from all knowledge, participation or responsibility in the same.

It is officially announced that General Caffarel has been removed from his post of chief of staff of the French war office and that his name has been stricken from the army list. He will receive a yearly pension of 8,000 francs. The Council of the Legion of Honor has recommended that his name be stricken from the list of members of the Legion and that he be deprived of the right of wearing any decoration of the order.

A Baltimore exchange says: "Six thousand people were at Pimlico yesterday. Six thousand ladies and gentlemen braved one of the muggiest and most uncomfortable days of the year to see the races. Six thousand lovers of the noblest of animals tramped on all thoughts of pneumonia and bad colds, and for three hours nestled on damp seats and under umbrellas in order to witness less than ten minutes of racing. And they bet their money and cheered the winners and bore their losses with all the uncomplaining philosophy of the good-natured crowd."

VIRGINIA NEWS.

Rev. J. H. Moore, of Berryville, has accepted a call to the new Presbyterian church on Maryland avenue, Baltimore.

William Finchum, who confessed the murder of his brother, Preston Finchum, near Harrisonburg, has been sentenced to be hung on the 16th of December.

In the London Circuit Court yesterday Ida Manly, indicted for murder, was found guilty of murder in the second degree and the punishment fixed at eighteen years in the penitentiary.

The Calverly Advance says: "The statement made in the Alexandria Gazette that Mr. James Barbour, the democratic nominee from this county, was dangerously ill, was a mistake, and Mr. Barbour has recovered from a sharp attack and is out again."

In Nansemond county, on Wednesday, at a sawmill near Stever's Station, a white man named Charles Williams by some means got his clothing caught in the machinery and was thrown on the circular saw and instantly killed, the man's body being cut in half.

A discharged man named Wm. Farrell, in a spirit of revenge, jumped on a locomotive left standing on a track on the Norfolk and New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, at Norfolk, on Wednesday night, and starting the engine, sent it crashing through a warehouse. Farrell was arrested yesterday and committed to answer for train-wrecking.

Mr. J. T. Odell, formerly assistant general manager of the Northern Pacific Railroad, has accepted the position of general superintendent of the Chesapeake and Ohio system, vice Mr. W. M. S. Dunn, resigned, on account of ill health. He will enter upon the discharge of his duties next month. Gen. Wickham, as second vice-president, remains general manager.

The fair at Lynchburg was completely drowned out yesterday by the rain, and the entire programme had to be postponed till to-day. Gov. Lee, accompanied by Col. C. O. E. Cowardin and Mr. Waller, arrived in the city at an early hour, and was met by a committee of citizens and a small detachment of military, and escorted to his hotel, where he spent the day receiving the calls of friends and holding an informal levee. He concluded to remain over and take part in the trades parade to day.

James Alexander, probably the oldest newspaper editor in Virginia, died at Charlottesville yesterday. He established the Charlottesville Jeffersonian in 1835, and edited it for more than thirty years. He was born in Boston in 1804. In 1813 he began his apprenticeship as printer with Wells & Lilly, the book publishers of Boston. In 1828 Mr. Alexander was induced by Thos. Jefferson Randolph and others to come to Charlottesville for the purpose of printing the memoirs and letters of Mr. Jefferson.

DEATH OF JAMES BERESFORD-HOPE.—A London dispatch announces the death of Right Hon. Alexander James Beresford Hope, liberal conservative member of Parliament for Cambridge University. His gift to Virginia in 1875 of a statue to Stonewall Jackson has made his name especially familiar throughout the State. The deceased was born in 1820 and was distinguished as an archaeologist, politician and author. He has written largely on church architecture and policy, and was the author of several successful novels. As the proprietor of the Saturday Review he exerted great influence upon the politics of his day. Since 1868 he has represented Cambridge in Parliament, having previously represented other constituencies. He was a wealthy man, having an income of $150,000 a year and large properties in London and elsewhere.

A pail filled with fresh mortar fell from the top of the new Court House in Macon, Ga., and struck squarely on its bottom on the head of a colored workman who was standing on the ground. The bottom was split into splinters and the pail and mortar completely encased his face, so that he was in great danger of smothering until relieved by a fellow workman.

Warren J. Lown, of Washington, has brought suit against his wife for divorce.

Don't!—A dealer offers you a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup without wrapper or label, or in a mutilated condition, don't touch it—don't buy it at any price, there is something wrong—it may be a dangerous or worthless counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken genuine package.

TODAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Foreign News.
ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 21.—Excavations in Jerusalem on ground belonging to the Russian government have resulted in the discovery of remains of the ancient town wall and the position of the gates of the town during the lifetime of the Saviour, through which the Saviour passed to Golgotha. Grand Duke Sergius, president of the Palestine Society, invites subscriptions to a fund for the purpose of preserving these relics.
LONDON, Oct. 21.—Edmond Texier, the French journalist and author, is dead. He was 71 years of age.
BERLIN, Oct. 21.—Bishop Kopp, the new Prince Bishop of Breslau, took the oath of civil allegiance to the Emperor yesterday in the presence of Herr Gassler, the Minister of Ecclesiastical Affairs. This is the first instance of such an oath being taken since the opening of the Kulturkampf, and it is due to the fact that the oath has recently been modified so as to render it unobjectionable to the prelates.

Bailed for his Appearance.
GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 21.—Wm. R. McCullough, chief engineer of the steamship Conal, who was arrested here yesterday charged with brutally murdering a coal handler, John T. Graham, while en route from New York, was brought before U. S. Commissioner Spain to-day for examination. The witnesses, Dougherty and Flynn, both testified that McCullough threw red hot coals on Graham while he was lying down complaining of being sick and overcome by the intense heat of the fire room. Dougherty also swore he saw the chief engineer strike Graham with an iron bar; said Graham was naked to the waist at the time and he (witness) could smell the man's flesh burning from the coals heaped on his back by McCullough. After hearing the evidence, the commissioner held the prisoner in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the November term of the U. S. Court. He furnished bail.

Steamers Ashore.
LONG BRANCH, N. J., Oct. 21.—The steamship Charles F. Mayer, a collier, bound from Boston, Mass., for Baltimore, commanded by Capt. Seth Hand, came ashore at 9:40 last night at Chadwick, N. J., about half a mile south of the life-saving station, and lies high and dry on the beach. The steamer being nearly new, and having no cargo on board, may possibly be got off when the sea goes down. The crew, 17 in number, were all brought ashore in the breeches buoy, cable connections having been made with the stranded vessel by means of the mortar, manned by Capt. John W. Pettit and his crew, of life saving station No. 12. Capt. Hand and his crew wish to express their thanks to the life saving crew for their efficient services and hospitality.

CHATHAM, Mass., Oct. 21.—The steamer Allegany, from Baltimore for Boston without coal, came ashore here in a heavy gale this morning.

The President's Tour.
TUCUMSECA, Ala., Oct. 21.—At Celera, a junction point in Alabama, where the train stopped to change engines, three or four thousand persons were assembled and amongst them five hundred workmen from Birmingham who had come on a special train with carriages decorated. Here three cheers were given for Mrs. Cleveland and the President. Mrs. Cleveland remarked, sotto voce, "They have got the wrong end first," but the President thought the people knew what they were about.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 21.—The President and his travelling companions reached here at a quarter past ten o'clock this morning. They were welcomed by the entire population and escorted through the streets of the city in carriages. They remained here half an hour.

A Mysterious Death.
BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 21.—William H. Thomas, who is said to be a Philadelphia policeman, was found dead in an early hour this morning on the sidewalk in front of the house occupied by his brother-in-law, N. T. Watkins, to whom he was paying a visit. The inmates of the house express the belief that he jumped out of the window of his room on the third floor, and Mrs. Watkins says that he has been periodically insane for some years, but the fact that the window was closed when the body was found and other suspicious circumstances, lead the police to believe that there was foul play and they are investigating the case.

Stabbed by his Father-in-Law.
MILWAUKEE, Oct. 21.—Jacob Jacques, a cabinet-maker, and his son-in-law, August Pathe, quarreled last night as to whether the former should charge ten or seven cents for a small job. Jacques went into his shop, secured a big knife and ran it into Pathe's abdomen. With the weapon sticking in his body Pathe pursued his father-in-law several blocks, returned to his house and pulled the weapon out. He will die. Jacques was last seen making for the river bare-headed, and is believed to have committed suicide.

Fire.
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 21.—A disastrous fire yesterday morning destroyed two entire blocks in the business center of Marinette, Wis. About twenty-five stores, besides a number of dwellings, were burned, entailing a loss of $200,000.

STATE DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.
ALEXANDRIA, VA., Oct. 21, 1887.
The following additional appointments are announced by authority. Democratic papers please copy.

JOHN S. BARBOUR, Chairman.
W. W. SCOTT, Secretary.

Walter R. Staples
Washington, Monday, October 24
Thomas Whitehead
Page, Monday, October 24.

Capt. Whitehead goes to Page at the request of the committee, and Capt. Horton will be appointed as Nelson for the 24th.

P. W. McKenney
Bedford, Monday, October 24.
Montgomery, Tuesday, October 25

WHOLESALE PRICES OF PRODUCE, OCT. 21

Floor, fine	$2.25	@	2.50
Superfine	2.75	@	3.00
Extra	3.50	@	3.90
Family	4.10	@	4.60
Fancy brands	4.50	@	5.00
Wheat, Longberry	0.74	@	0.79
Mixed	0.75	@	0.79
Fair Wheat	0.70	@	0.75
Damp and tough	0.60	@	0.70
Corn, white	0.53	@	0.54
Yellow	0.53	@	0.54
New corn	0.75	@	0.79
Corn meal	0.56	@	0.58
Rye	0.47	@	0.54
Oats, new	0.30	@	0.36
Butter, Virginia prime	0.18	@	0.20
Common to middling	0.12	@	0.15
Eggs	0.20	@	0.21
Live Chickens	0.05	@	0.06
Irish Potatoes per bushel	0.40	@	0.65
Onions	1.40	@	1.50
Apples per barrel	1.50	@	2.00
Dried Peaches, peeled	0.7	@	0.8
" " unpeeled	0.4	@	0.5
" " Cherries	0.3	@	0.15
Dried Apples	0.14	@	0.15
Hacon—Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Best sugar cured Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Butcher's Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Breakfast Bacon	0.12	@	0.00
Sugar-cured Shoulders	0.12	@	0.84
Butt shoulders	0.64	@	0.64
" lg. c. sides	0.48	@	0.48
" fat backs	0.8	@	0.84
" bellies	0.84	@	0.94
Bacon Shoulders	0.7	@	0.74
" Sides	0.94	@	0.10
Lard	0.74	@	0.8
Smoked Beef	0.15	@	0.15 1/2
Sugar-cured	0.54	@	0.54 1/2
" Old	0.75	@	0.75
Conf. Standard A	0.64	@	0.64 1/2
Granulated	0.67	@	0.7
Coffees—Rio	0.19	@	0.22
" La Guayra	0.22	@	0.24
" Java	0.25	@	0.28
Molasses B. S.	0.15	@	0.16
" C. B.	0.07	@	0.07
Sugar Syrup	0.22	@	0.33
Herring, Eastern, per bbl.	3.50	@	5.25
Potatoes No. 1	5.00	@	5.50
Pot. Family Loc. 2 bbl.	9.50	@	10.00
Do. 1 lb. barrel	4.75	@	5.25
Macaroni, small per bbl.	0.00	@	0.00
" No. 3, medium	0.00	@	0.00

COMMUNICATED.
In a recent number of Harper's Weekly, whose most valued editorial writers have been those who could most slander and vituperate against the democratic party and the south, I find the following comments upon the action of the late State democratic convention of Massachusetts, in repudiating Mr. Cleveland's policy of retaining and appointing republicans to office, and in electing delegates at-large to the next National Convention opposed to his re-nomination.

"The action of the democracy of Massachusetts confirms what has been so long evident, that reform can not be reasonably expected from the democratic party, and that the strength of the President's hold upon the country lies in the general confidence in his personality, and not in the party to which he belongs. Just in the degree that the President yields to the spirit which ruled his party in Massachusetts which elected the delegates opposed to him, just in that degree he alienates the sympathy and support of those who love him for the enemies he has made."

The present chief editor of this republican journal is supposed to be one of the main directors of the civil service policy of the Administration elected by the democratic party. I ask, how much should self-respecting democrats love Mr. Cleveland for some of the friends he has made?

FAIRFAX C. H., Oct. 20, 1884.

FAIRFAX ITEMS.—The following will, recorded at the last term of the County Court, is probably the shortest on record in this county. It seems that a colored man had been threatening to kill Mr. Haycock on election day, and before the day arrived the latter left with his sister the following note, which, as above stated, has been entered on the record book. Mr. Haycock having died a short while ago.

Oct. 29, 1886.

To my sister:

Jennie—If I am killed all my property is yours and all my interests in all things. Give this to Judge Thomas.

THOMAS J. HAYCK, JR.

Charles Clarke, 17 or 18 years old, who works in Mr. Segil Brown's saw mill, at Annandale, undertook, on Wednesday, to push some saw dust away from the saw with his foot, when, getting too near the saw, the latter caught his shoe and in an instant had jerked the sole from the upper, and hurled Mr. Clarke about ten feet. Both bones of his leg below the knee were broken and, under the circumstances, he was fortunate to escape so well.

The commissioners appointed by the Court to view and report on the condition of the Little River turnpike, have reported that it was in good condition in every part thereof.

R. L. Marshall has purchased R. P. Blake's interest in the store at Burke's Station. —Herald.

FATAL RIDE.—A part of the Ohio River Railroad near Guyandotte, below Parkersburg, W. Va., was the scene of a terrible accident yesterday by which two men lost their lives, and a number of others were badly injured. A party of eight young men, for amusement, took a hand-car and started down the road, trying how fast they could go. Suddenly the handles of the car got caught and it was thrown from the track down a twenty foot embankment, all landing in a heap at the bottom, with broken arms and legs and bodies terribly cut. Benjamin Grover and Frank Wiley were found fatally hurt, and John Miles in a critical condition.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.
The markets generally are quiet, and there is no special feature to note. There is very little speculative feeling manifested but a slightly better feeling and some improvement is noted in prices of grain. Money is still scarce outside the "centres" and in the country there is still much complaint of the stringency. U. S. bonds are firm. Virginia State securities are rather firmer in tone, though the quotations are nominal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The opening of the stock market was firm to strong this morning, advances over yesterday's final figures ranging from 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. The market was very active in the early dealings, but soon became quiet, though there was a moderate business in the latter part of the hour. Prices were not maintained, giving way immediately after the opening, and before 10:30 several stocks had declined small fractions. A recovery followed, in which most of the losses were regained, but the movement was quite slow until late in the hour, when many stocks passed the opening prices. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and firm, generally at small fractions better than first prices. Money easy at 4 1/2.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—Virginia 6s consolidated 46 1/4; post-due coupons 61; 10-40s 34 1/2; new 3s 62 bid to-day.

WHOLESALE PRICES OF PRODUCE, OCT. 21

Floor, fine	$2.25	@	2.50
Superfine	2.75	@	3.00
Extra	3.50	@	3.90
Family	4.10	@	4.60
Fancy brands	4.50	@	5.00
Wheat, Longberry	0.74	@	0.79
Mixed	0.75	@	0.79
Fair Wheat	0.70	@	0.75
Damp and tough	0.60	@	0.70
Corn, white	0.53	@	0.54
Yellow	0.53	@	0.54
New corn	0.75	@	0.79
Corn meal	0.56	@	0.58
Rye	0.47	@	0.54
Oats, new	0.30	@	0.36
Butter, Virginia prime	0.18	@	0.20
Common to middling	0.12	@	0.15
Eggs	0.20	@	0.21
Live Chickens	0.05	@	0.06
Irish Potatoes per bushel	0.40	@	0.65
Onions	1.40	@	1.50
Apples per barrel	1.50	@	2.00
Dried Peaches, peeled	0.7	@	0.8
" " unpeeled	0.4	@	0.5
" " Cherries	0.3	@	0.15
Dried Apples	0.14	@	0.15
Hacon—Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Best sugar cured Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Butcher's Hams	0.13	@	0.13 1/2
Breakfast Bacon	0.12	@	0.00
Sugar-cured Shoulders	0.12	@	0.84
Butt shoulders	0.64	@	0.64
" lg. c. sides	0.48	@	0.48
" fat backs	0.8	@	0.84
" bellies	0.84	@	0.94
Bacon Shoulders	0.7	@	0.74
" Sides	0.94	@	0.10
Lard	0.74	@	0.8
Smoked Beef	0.15	@	0.15 1/2
Sugar-cured	0.54	@	0.54 1/2
" Old	0.75	@	0.75
Conf. Standard A	0.64	@	0.64 1/2
Granulated	0.67	@	0.7
Coffees—Rio	0.19	@	0.22
" La Guayra	0.22	@	0.24
" Java	0.25	@	0.28
Molasses B. S.	0.15	@	0.16
" C. B.	0.07	@	0.07
Sugar Syrup	0.22	@	0.33
Herring, Eastern, per bbl.	3.50	@	5.25
Potatoes No. 1	5.00	@	5.50
Pot. Family Loc. 2 bbl.	9.50	@	10.00
Do. 1 lb. barrel	4.75	@	5.25
Macaroni, small per bbl.	0.00	@	0.00
" No. 3, medium	0.00	@	0.00

COMMUNICATED.
In a recent number of Harper's Weekly, whose most valued editorial writers have been those who could most slander and vituperate against the democratic party and the south, I find the following comments upon the action of the late State democratic convention of Massachusetts, in repudiating Mr. Cleveland's policy of retaining and appointing republicans to office, and in electing delegates at-large to the next National Convention opposed to his re-nomination.</